This Week

What a delightful week it has been at Hedgewood! We are thrilled to report that our pupils continue to show us how seamlessly they settled into the new academic year, embracing learning with enthusiasm and joy. It warms our hearts to witness their camaraderie as they engage in play, fostering a positive and inclusive environment. Their kindness and respect towards one another are truly commendable. We couldn't be prouder of the way our pupils, from Pre-Phase 1 all the way to Phase 3, have embraced the spirit of unity and cooperation. We look forward to a year filled with curiosity, growth, and continued harmony.

A heartfelt thank you to all who attended our Parent/Carer Coffee event with warmth and enthusiasm. Your presence transformed the afternoon into a relaxed and lovely environment, fostering connections that are at the heart of our school community. It was lovely to witness new parents joining us, welcomed by our existing parents, creating a supportive atmosphere.

We understand that life is busy, and commitments vary, so please do not feel compelled to stay for the entire duration. Stay for as long as you can manage if you have other commitments. As we look forward to future gatherings, mark your calendars for our next coffee event on Wednesday, 8th November, from 9:00 am to 10:00 am. Until then, thank you, and we hope to see you again!
